

centers located in the most prestigious medical schools in the United States as well as to create seven more such centers world wide.

Thus, it is evident how all encompassing our representation is in and for the Parkinson community.

I assure you of the utmost support of the entire National Parkinson Foundation organization on behalf of the "Morris K. Udall Parkinson's Research, Assistance, and Education Act of 1995".

I also wish to assure you that I personally am available in any manner you see fit to assist you in support of the bill.

Sincerely,

NATHAN SLEWETT,
Chairman.

MCKENDREE COLLEGE'S NEW PRESIDENT

● Mr. SIMON. Mr. President, James W. Dennis will be inaugurated as McKendree College's 32d president on April 29. Whether as a faculty member or administrator, Dr. Dennis has had an exceptional commitment to young people.

Throughout his career, Dr. Dennis has been active in both the academic and nonacademic communities. For instance, Dr. Dennis founded the National Youth Program which offers educational and sports opportunities to disadvantaged youth. He has also provided learning opportunities for high school and college educators by establishing the educational seminars. A world class advocate and educator, Dr. Dennis has promoted student voluntarism and supported area alcohol and drug-abuse education efforts.

As Illinois' oldest college, McKendree will prosper with Dr. Dennis' activism and commitment. I extend my best wishes to Dr. Dennis and McKendree College.●

TRIBUTE TO LOUISVILLE MALE HIGH SCHOOL

● Mr. McCONNELL. Mr. President, I would like to recognize Louisville Male High School, from Kentucky, who won first place at the State competition of the We the People . . . The Citizen and the Constitution. This victory entitles these young scholars to compete in the national finals held in our Nation's Capital.

The members of the Louisville Male High School team are: Shannon Bender, Josh Bridgwater, Shilo Burke, Katie Callender, Scott Embry, Jessi Followwill, Adam Greenwell, John Grissom, Christy Jones, Jonathan Keith, Stephanie McAlmont, Stephen McAlmont, Shannon McMillan, Travis Moore, Kristi Mosier, Adam Pedigo, Melanie Rapp, Amber Rowan, Chris Rutledge, Shannon Simms, Eric Stevens, April Stivers, Ricky Suel, Danyaun Vandgrift, Shaniqua Wade.

I would also like to recognize their teacher, Sandra D. Hoover, who deserves much of the credit for the success of the team. The district coordinator, Tommy Dowler, and the State coordinator, Tami Dowler also contributed a significant amount of time and effort to help the team reach the national finals.

The We the People . . . the Citizen and the Constitution program, funded by Congress, is designated to educate young people about the Constitution and the Bill of Rights. The 3-day national competition simulates a congressional hearing in which students' oral presentations are judged on the basis of their knowledge of constitutional principles and their ability to apply them to historical and contemporary issues. Members of Congress and their staff enhance the program by discussing current constitutional issues with both students and teachers.

Mr. President, I would like my colleagues to join me in recognizing these students. It is refreshing to see young people wanting to gain an informed perspective about the history and the principles of the United States constitutional government. I wish the members of the Male High School We the People team the best of luck and look forward to their future in politics and government.●

JAMES R. SCHLESINGER: PAUL H. NITZE AWARD RECIPIENT

● Mr. MOYNIHAN. Mr. President, the Center for Naval Analyses in Alexandria, VA, annually presents the Paul H. Nitze Award in recognition of important contributions to national and international security affairs. This year's recipient of the Nitze Award is the Honorable James R. Schlesinger, who received the award on April 6, 1995.

Dr. James Schlesinger is of course one of the most experienced and able public servants of our time. A distinguished economist, he served during the Nixon administration in several prominent capacities in the Bureau of the Budget, ascending to Assistant Director in 1970, when the Bureau became the Office of Management and Budget. And, as Senators are well aware, he went on to become Director of Central Intelligence and Secretary of Defense in the Nixon and Ford administrations, and Secretary of Energy under President Carter. Dr. Schlesinger has also served for many years as senior advisor at Lehman Brothers, and he is widely respected for his scholarship arising out of his long association with the Center for Strategic and International Studies at Georgetown University.

On receiving the Paul H. Nitze Award, Jim Schlesinger delivered an outstanding lecture on "American Leadership, Isolationism, and Unilateralism" in which he points out the need for close attention to the leadership role of the United States in international affairs in the post-cold-war era.

Mr. President, when a scholar and public eminence of James Schlesinger's wisdom and stature addresses himself to an issue of such significance to world affairs, I believe it is incumbent on all of us to take notice. Every Senator will benefit from a careful reading of Dr. Schlesinger's speech, and I therefore ask that it be printed in the RECORD.
